VETERANS DAY

Whereas October 22, 1973, will mark the first observance of Veterans Day since the cessation of hostilities in Vietnam; and

Whereas more than forty-six thousand Americans lost their lives and more than three hundred thousand were wounded in action in the Vietnam conflict; and

Whereas the Vietnam engagement was the longest war in the history of the United States and was marked with controversy both at home and abroad; and

Whereas the American military man withstood these adverse conditions and served with valor and courage; and

Whereas the loyalty and devotion to duty of the American serviceman was of the highest order and played an important role in making peace negotiations possible: Now, therefore, be it
